

The card features a central illustration of a snowy winter landscape with several wooden houses with red roofs, snow-covered evergreen trees, and distant mountains. The scene is framed by decorative pine branches with red berries and pinecones at the top and bottom corners. The text is centered in the white space above the illustration.

As the holidays season approaches us, to our Navajo children & families near and far please accept our Holiday Wishes. May this Christmas season bring you and your loved ones a great deal of joy, peace, and beautiful time spent with your loved ones.

For our Division staff, please know how proud I am of your teamwork and all your efforts. Each of you have contributed to doing some great work in the past year, and I want to recognize that. Christmas is a time to rejoice and feel grateful for those we love and care for. Ahéhee' for all you have done for our great Navajo Nation and for the children and families we serve. We are able to continue to achieve these successes for our families with your dedication and hard work - Ahéhee'.

Yá'át'ééh Késhmish dóó Baa Hózhóqgo Nee Nínáadoohah!
